Mufti Day 5th April 2019

Fundraising for Autism Awareness – Friday, 5th April – Mufti Day

To link in with Autism Awareness Week, on the last day of term, Friday, 5th April, all the children at Heathfield Nursery, Infant & Junior schools, can come to school wearing rainbow/spring colours. You can make a voluntary donation which will go to the National Autistic Society.

Music News

The Heathfield Choir sung their hearts out at the Richmond Schools' Music Festival on Tuesday 26th March at the Rose Theatre in Kingston. They wowed the audience with a brilliant rendition of Walking on Sunshine, plus added to the four massed songs with some fantastic singing. As always, our children were impeccably behaved and proved a real credit to our school.

Singing pupils were busy preparing and performing in the Music Tea concerts over the last 2 weeks. Again, much hard work went into preparing their performances, learning songs and presenting themselves brilliantly in front of an invited audience of parents, family and friends. Well done to all those who took part.

And finally, a quick reminder to those singing pupils who are preparing for Prep Test and Grade 1 exams that examination fees are due after the Easter break so that the exam applications can go ahead. Many thanks in advance for your cooperation with this.

. Start your week with a song! Come along to the Infant hall every Monday morning for 20 minutes of singing with parents, children and staff. Mr Speck will lead a session of popular songs for everyone, and also teach you a thing or two about good vocal technique! Arrive around 8.25am ready to sing at 8.30am. There is no need to have any singing experience and no need to sing a solo (unless you want to!). Toddlers and younger siblings are also welcome to join. Please note that you are responsible for supervising your child during this time, and you must accompany them for drop-off in the playground ready for the start of the day as normal. See you there!

Train to Teach with Richmond Teaching School Alliance (RTSA)

Would you like to train to teach with Richmond Teaching Schools Alliance (RTSA)? RTSA is a group of local secondary schools led by Waldegrave School. The Alliance offers an outstanding place to work and learn and provides a supportive and tailored learning opportunity in partnership with our partner universities, Roehampton, St Mary's and King's College London.

We are currently recruiting for the following School Direct (unsalaried) courses for 2019/20 in our local Richmond schools:

English, Computing, Mathematics, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Geography, History, Religious Education, Design & Technology, Art & Design, Modern Languages (French, Spanish, German), Drama and Physical Education

Successful completion of the course leads to qualified teacher status (QTS) and a postgraduate certificate in education (PGCE) with Masters credits. For further details of courses and how to apply please visit UCAS teacher training course search* and enter 'RTSA' in the 'school, university or other training provider' box.

Further information can also be found on the School Direct page of our website (www.waldegrave.richmond.sch.uk) or by emailing rtsa@waldegrave.org.uk.
